Nominee

This form must be handed to the minister who is to conduct the meeting for the election of churchwardens at any time before the start of that meeting. When there is no minister, this form must be handed to the churchwarden who signed the notice convening the meeting.

No person chosen for the office of churchwarden shall become churchwarden until they shall have been admitted to the office by the bishop or his substitute duly appointed; however all persons elected shall become ex-officio members of the parochial church council from the time of their election.

FROM THE CHURCHWARDENS MEASURE 2001:

The churchwardens of every parish shall be chosen from persons who have been baptised and —

- a) whose names are on the church electoral roll of the chaplaincy;
- b) who are actual communicants;
- c) who are twenty-one years of age or upwards; and
- d) who are not disqualified as laid out below.

No person shall be chosen as churchwarden of a chaplaincy for any period of office unless they —

- a) have signified consent to serve as such; and
- b) have not signified consent to serve as such for the same period of office in any other chaplaincy (not being a related chaplaincy) or, if such consent has been signified and the meeting of the chaplaincy members to elect churchwardens of that other chaplaincy has been held, was not chosen as churchwarden of that other chaplaincy.

Disqualifications

1. A person shall be disqualified from being chosen for the office of churchwarden if they are disqualified from being a charity trustee under section 178 of the Charities Act 2011 and the disqualification is not for the time being subject to a general waiver by the Charity Commissioners under subsection (4) of that section or to a waiver by them under that subsection in respect of all ecclesiastical charities established for purposes relating to the chaplaincy concerned. (“Ecclesiastical charity” has the same meaning as that assigned to that expression in the Local Government Act 1894)

2. A person shall be disqualified from being chosen for the office of churchwarden if they have been convicted of any offence mentioned in Schedule 1 to the Children and Young Persons Act 1933. (This includes any offence which, by virtue of any enactment, is to be treated as being included in all or any of the provisions of that Act.)

3. A person shall be disqualified from being chosen for the office of churchwarden if they are disqualified from holding that office under section 10(6) of the Incumbents (Vacation of Benefices) Measure 1977.

4. Without prejudice to the above, a person shall be disqualified from being chosen for the office of churchwarden when that person has served as a churchwarden of the same chaplaincy for six successive periods of office until the annual meeting of the chaplaincy members to elect churchwardens in the next year but one following the date on which that person vacated office at the end of the last such period: Provided that a meeting of the chaplaincyioners may by resolution decide that this section shall not apply in relation to the chaplaincy concerned.

Note: A person is disqualified from being a charity trustee under the Charities Act if they have been convicted of an offence involving deception or dishonesty (unless any such conviction is legally regarded as spent), if they are an undischarged bankrupt, have made compositions or arrangements with any creditors from which they have not been discharged or have been removed from serving as a charity trustee, or been stopped from acting in a management position within a charity.
